1899

CHAS. SEDELMAYER, Publisher and Art-dealer, Paris, has the richest stock of original pictures in Europe.

His gallery includes over 800 works by Old Masters, of which this Catalogue describes only a portion, and a similar number of pictures by living artists, and painters of the Barbizon School.

He publishes every year a selection of fine and important plates, of which only a small number of proofs are printed.

He has just issued the third volume of a most extensive book in 8 volumes on Rembrandt, containing reproductions of all the pictures of this master; the text by Doctor W. Bode, Director of the Berlin Gallery. Subscriptions now received.

The prospectus of this book, and illustrated catalogues of other publications, to be had at CHAS. SEDELMAYER's, 6, rue de La Rochefoucauld, Paris.

BEYEREN (ABRAHAM H. VAN)

(1620 or 1621 - after 1674)

1. — Still-Life

A rich cluster of fruit grouped on a table covered with a violet velvet-cloth fringed with gold. In the centre is a basket on which is placed a large silver plate containing peaches and grapes. A plate with a partly peeled lemon in front. On the left, some oysters and a lemon, and behind, a golden bowl and a crystal cup. On the right, a Delft dish with slices of pine-apple, and a lobster.

Signed with monogram.

Canvas, 47 in. by 38 1/2 in.

CAPPELLE (JAN VAN DE)

(1624-1679)

2. — A Calm

On the right, the end of a jetty, near which are several vessels and small boats. In the centre of the foreground a man is dragging a rudder along the shore towards a boat on the left, in which are three men. A fine yacht is anchored in the middle distance, and other vessels are seen in the background.

Signed with the initials : J. V. C.

Canvas, 20 in. by 28 in.

From the Collection of the Earl of De la Warr.

CUYP (AELBERT)
(1620-1691)

4. — Landscape with Horseman and Animals

Described in Smith's Catalogue (part v, p. 347, n° 221) as follows :

« A Farmer on Horseback, conversing with a Herdsman. The view appears to be taken from the vicinity of Nemwygen, and is composed, on the left (right), of a high road leading to a chain of mountains, at the base of which are several ancient buildings with towers. A river flows on the right (left), the banks of which are fringed with bushes. Near this part are a flock of sheep and two cows; the latter are lying down; and in the road is a man in a red jacket on a white horse, apparently in conversation with the herdsman. A third peasant is near the mountains. The effect of a beautiful summer's evening pervades the scene, and light diaphanous clouds float over the azure sky. This is a production of the rarest excellence and beauty. »

Signed : A. Cuyp.
Panel, 2 in. by 8 in.

Described in Smith's « Catalogue Raisonné », part v, p. 347, n° 221.

PRESS OPINIONS

The Times, London, May 21, 1896.

No such monument has ever been erected to any painter. To attempt such a work at all, three things were necessary — photography with its modern development, enterprise, and a critical authority as complete as Dr. Bode's is.

The Times, London, April 14, 1897.

We commend this book as a wonderful result of modern reconstructive scholarship, zeal, and enterprise. When the eight volumes are completed, they will be quite indispensable to every library which concerns itself with the history of art.

The Times, London, January 7, 1898.

The second of the eight volumes of this important and splendid work has just been issued by M. Sedelmeyer and is not less carefully executed than the first.

The volume as a whole, like its predecessor, represents all that scholarship, care and money can do towards the erection of a worthy monument to Rembrandt's memory.

The Daily Chronicle, London, April 29, 1896.

These photogravures are invaluable to students of Rembrandt and are excellently produced. The expense, research and energy of Mr. Sedelmeyer in making this collection must have been enormous.

All we can say is that the subject is worthy of it, and happy will they be who can become owners of the costly work, which is to be issued in eight volumes.

Illustrated London News, April 25, 1896.

The value and beauty of this collection, which exceeds anything before attempted, are beyond controversy.

The Daily Telegraph, London, October 22, 1896.

The work will be a veritable monument to the genius of the very greatest of all painters.

American Register, Paris, March 27, 1897.

A magnificent work of art, at which no less a connoisseur than Mr. Charles Sedelmeyer, the well-known dealer and expert in art, in collaboration with Director Bode, has been working for fully fifteen years, has at last been completed. It is the richly illustrated edition in eight large volumes of "L'Œuvre Complet de Rembrandt," a véritable literary and artistic monument to the great Dutch master, all of whose works, scattered throughout the world, have here been reproduced in heliogravure, with full descriptive text. The first volume has made its appearance, and, as might well have been foreseen, does great credit to the enterprising editor as well as to France.

The Collector, New York, April 15, 1897.

Nothing has yet been done, either in honour of any single artist or for the recording of his works, to even approach « The Complete Work of Rembrandt » which is published by M. Sedelmeyer, of Paris.... It comes in the shape of a fat folio, of the most sumptuous form of artistic embellishment and typography, and, entirely apart from its magnificence as an art work, is a book of reference no true collector can fail to appreciate.

The Art Amateur, New York, December, 1897.

The Complete Work of Rembrandt, which Dr. Bode has spent fifteen years in preparing, and of which Mr. Sedelmeyer has already issued the first two volumes in truly magnificent style, will reproduce every known painting by the master, one hundred and fifty of them never before published.

The Art Amateur, New York, September, 1899.

We have already spoken in terms of the highest praise of the first two volumes of this magnificent work. The third is, if possible, still more remarkable. In it, Dr. Bode, as biographer, has reached one of the most interesting periods of Rembrandt's artistic career, that immediately succeeding his marriage, and leads with a series of biblical and mythological compositions — and the portraits and studies connected with them — including some of the painter's acknowledged masterpieces.

We need not expatiate on the importance of Dr. Bode's « Rembrandt » to collectors. It promises to be the first really adequate representation of a great painter's work. Mr. Sedelmeyer's courage, taste, and judgment cannot be too liberally acknowledged. He is producing a monograph, which will be of inestimable advantage to all serious students of art, and one which we are entitled to hope will be accepted as a standard for other publications of the kind. It would certainly be difficult to imagine anything more perfect than the way in which the work, literary, artistic, and mechanical, has, thus far, been done. The text is, in its completeness and reliability, worthy of the great artist to which it is devoted, and the illustrations, reproduced by the heliogravure process, are worthy of the text.
